

Why don't you leave XM radio alone. How can you think that broadcasting weather and traffic information is bad? I always use these stations to track storms because I am often on the road. It helps to have a station constantly airing the weather and traffic.